Sunlight Games announces "Mow-Town Riding": Who is the best "lawnmower"?

Cologne, June 20, 2013 – Sunlight Games announces its latest game that blends skill and action: in "Mow-Town Riding", players must mow the biggest area of grass possible in a limited time.

But it's not as easy as it sounds: sidewalks, flowers, trees and other objects love to be in the lawnmower racers' way. They need to skillfully drive around them or find ways to remove them altogether.

"Mow-Town Riding" is the first game created by Cologne's Sunlight Games that is not only available for iOS and Android, but also for Windows Phone 8 and Windows 8 (desktop and tablets). The attached screenshots provide a first peek into the game, more news will follow shortly.
